PRACTICE PROFILE:
Lauren Moskowitz is a partner in Cravath's Litigation Department. She has a broad practice with a particular focus on securities, general commercial and intellectual property litigation. Her clients have included Credit Suisse, Renaissance Technologies, INEOS, CSX Corporation, Medinol Ltd. and Royal Dutch Shell.

In her representation of Credit Suisse in residential mortgage-backed securities litigation, Lauren has eliminated billions of dollars in claims against the company over the past few years. In 2017, she represented Credit Suisse in only the second RMBS investor suit ever to go to trial, which settled after five weeks of trial. She subsequently represented Credit Suisse in another lawsuit that settled on the first day of trial.

Lauren recently helped obtain a favorable ruling before New York's highest court on the issue of statute of limitations under the Martin Act in a lawsuit brought by the New York Attorney General over $40 billion in RMBS sponsored by Credit Suisse.

LEADERSHIP, PRO BONO AND CIVIC WORK: Lauren is president-elect of the New York American Inn of Court. Her pro bono work includes successfully representing Ms. Montoya Alvarez before the U.S. Supreme Court in an international custody dispute that made new law regarding application of equitable tolling to treaties in general and in particular to the "now settled" defense to a child's return to her home country under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.
