Nathan K. Noh focuses his practice on advising fund sponsors, founders and institutions in connection with the design, organization and operation of private investment funds, vehicles and accounts, as well as complex asset management M&A transactions and strategic partnerships.

In particular, Mr. Noh has extensive experience providing thoughtful advice to emerging and established managers and investors as they navigate the entire investment management and private funds lifecycle across traditional and bespoke structures, business objectives, economics, strategies and asset classes, including private equity, hedge, credit, venture capital, real estate, hybrid, seed/stakes, co-investment, fund-of-funds and secondaries. His practice also includes advising on internal “upper-tier” arrangements, succession planning and funds regulatory matters.

Mr. Noh received a B.S. with honors from the University of California, Berkeley in 2013 and a J.D. from New York University School of Law in 2016, where he was the Senior Articles Editor for the NYU Journal of Legislation and Public Policy. Mr. Noh is a member of the Volunteers of Legal Service (VOLS) Pro Bono Advocates Council and a NextGen Advocate for Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS.

Mr. Noh joined Cravath in 2022 and was named of counsel in 2024.
