Kathryn-Ann Stamm advises and provides support to the Firm's clients regarding the protection, growth and management of their intellectual property and technology assets, data security and general privacy matters.

Ms. Stamm has in-depth knowledge and experience implementing these strategies in the context of corporate transactions such as mergers and acquisitions, spin-offs and separations, licensing arrangements, partnerships, joint ventures and collaborations.

Handling both domestic and cross-border transactions, Ms. Stamm provides public and private companies with advice tailored to their unique requirements. She also works extensively with startup, founder-led and emerging growth companies on maximizing their intellectual property portfolio and preparing their IP, IT security and data management strategies for success in the next stage of their growth cycle.

Ms. Stamm was named a Trailblazer in IP in the World Intellectual Property Review's 2024 Diversity Top 100 list and was listed in the "Women Who Will" 2024 report by Next 100 Years & Obelisk Support.

Ms. Stamm is regularly invited to speak on these topics, including at the 2022 and 2023 Center for Global Enterprise USA Women Entrepreneurship Cooperative Legal Pop-Up Sessions. She sits on the Board of Stewards for the African Women Entrepreneurship Cooperative.

Ms. Stamm grew up in South Africa and France. She received an LL.B. from King's College London, a Master I and a Master II from University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, an LL.M. from City University of Hong Kong School of Law and a J.D. from Cornell Law School.

Ms. Stamm joined Cravath in 2016 and from 2020 to 2022 served as Senior Court Counsel to the Supreme Court of the Republic of Palau. She rejoined Cravath in 2022, where she continued to co-captain the Cravath Sailing Team. Ms. Stamm was elected of counsel in 2023.
